Correspondence: A park permit from CHAS for September 27th at MCP for the annual fall festival was approved by the township committee. The Committee approved the park use with no fee.

Open Public Forum:

Bills: no bills list

Action Items:

Facilities: Colleen Herbert and Brian Sisz asked Rob Semptimphelter for suggestions to get help for the field maintenance. We have coaches who are willing to help with the baseball fields. The ordinance updates are being reviewed by the township committee and presented for public review at the August 12th meeting. Paul suggested the wording being changed to allow for use of a vehicle for field maintenance. Country Walk park was discussed and the township will be taking over that park once the developer's punch list is completed and they expect that to be this summer.

Reports from Subcommittee:

Soccer: Brian Morro: registration is closed 235 kids registered. Will schedule assessments for the 3rd and 4th and 5th and 6th grade divisions. Will go to Kindergarten orientation to let the parents of the younger kids know about the program.

Basketball- Tammy will put in building use form for MTES and JHES for next season.

Baseball: Robert Siverio: continuing to work on game plan for next season. He will meet with subcommittee to go over suggestions and then present the final plan to the committee.

Softball: the one tournament team made it to states but lost.

Football/Cheerleading: registration numbers look good and August 10th is the start date for the season.

Concessions:

Sponsorship: sponsorship plaques are in, need to write a thank you note to send with each one.

Finance:

Old business:

New business: Rutgers class will be held August 19th and Christine will send that information out to everyone.

Adjournment: Motion to adjourn at 8:48 pm by Colleen Herbert and second by Brian Sisz. All present members approved and motion passed.

Respectfully prepared and submitted:

Christine Alpin, secretary
