Action Items:

Facilities:

Indoor facility: needs to be cleaned. Christine will check with Jeff to confirm it is on the schedule for cleaning. Garbage and recycling need to be picked up, including broken L-screen on side on building. Christine will get message to Jeff.

A question of who can turn the lights on/off at the civic club was discussed and currently Paul Narwid is the contact for the baseball field and Christine Alpin is a back up if he can not be reached. Games should be scheduled in advance so the lights will be programmed in advance but all coaches should be reminded that if they finish really Paul to Christine should be contacted to have the lights turned off once everyone has left the game.

Reports from Subcommittee:

Soccer: Brian Morro: registration is open until July 10th. Email blast was sent out and flyers going home through both schools. Assessments will be in beginning of August. Picture night is Friday Sept 11th. Season will begin Saturday Sept 12.

Basketball- season over- nothing new to report. Tammy is working on timeline

Baseball: Robert Siverio: playoffs almost done. Rob is continuing to work on the timeline for next season. He will schedule a subcommittee meeting and to discuss suggested changes and then Brian Siz will schedule an NBIAA league meeting so that all 4 townships work together. Rob will send out the recommendations and proposed timeline he is working on to all the committee members for review.

Rob organized a Home Run Derby at MCP on Saturday during Field Day to help raise money for the District teams. They had 27 participants and the winners received trophies and/or prizes. $540 was raised . Taking out the cost of the trophies ($60), $480 will be divided among the participating teams to help offset costs of uniforms/tournaments.
