Action Items:

new permit packet for field use/indoor facility: Tabled

Facilities: Brian Sisz updated the committee on the indoor facility. Brian is looking into replacing heater. Right now the existing heater is designed to pull in the outside air and heat it but with the extreme cold temperatures the building is not warming up.

Jeff Jones is waiting on a quote from Rick Arnold to get power out to the mound at the Civic Club field from the new building. He suggested that the easiest way would be to run a line from the new building over to the remaining section on the old building where the line then runs out to the mound.

At MCP- Christine will set the computer to unlock and lock the bathrooms on a daily basis starting March 28th.

For Fields- A motion was made by Randy Feig to add the yellow capping and wind screens at the fields MCP, Hedding and Georgetown Rd Park(as done at Civic Club field last spring) at a cost that is not to exceed $3000.00 per field. Colby Bressler second the motion and all present members approved and the motion carried.

Team numbers: for the boys: 5 majors, 7 minors, 3 rookies and 5 Tball and on the softball side: no majors, 5 minors and 1 rookie team.

Opening Day will be Monday April 13th. Randy Feig will send out an email looking for volunteers to help put together equipment and fix the pads in the batting cage at MCP.

For Picture Day- looking to try to get 2nd or 9th of May.

Brian Sisz will send out another email to all the coaches reminding them that all coaches and assistants should be Rutgers Certified.

Softball:

Football/Cheerleading: Tammy Caloiaro let everyone know that there is a discount on fall registration during March Madness.

Concessions: Colleen updated the committee: her daughter Nicole along with 2 other parents will most likely take over the concessions. Colleen wants to go over the schedule first to make sure there are enough scheduled games in the park to make it worthwhile.

Sponsorship: Colby updated the committee: He has about 10 sponsors in so far and some are for NBIAA. Colby recommends the committee consider sponsorships for all 3 sports like they have it in Chesterfield.

Finance:Old business: reminders:

Rutgers SAFETY course for Spring season- March 18th

MTEs 5K and bunny breakfast- March 28th

Easter Egg Hunt- 1pm Sunday, March 29th

New business: Dick's sporting day is this coming Saturday, March 21st and everyone can get 20% of their entire purchase.

Adjournment: Motion to adjourn at 9:17 pm by Tammy Caloiaro and second by Brian Sisz. All present members approved and motion passed.

Respectfully prepared and submitted:

Christine Alpin, secretary
