Facilities: The heater in the indoor facility is repaired and working well. Brian Sisz recommends that it be covered to protect it and then padded to protect the kids.

Reports from Subcommittee:

Soccer: Brian Morro is continuing to work with the coordinators from the other towns to plan for next season.

Basketball- Tammy Caloiaro: season underway, running smoothly, one problem with a coach coach from Chesterfield in minor girls. Tammy will follow up with John Fyrc in Chesterfield.

Baseball: Rob Siverio: Still working on finding coaches where needed. Assessments will be held on Feb. 27th at the indoor facility. Dan Berg offered to help that day. All kids who are assessing up will need to go to both sessions that day. Christine will order labels for assessments, rob will set up assessment sheets once he has the file sent to him. Tammy Feig offered to order the uniforms again for the season.

Softball: Lori Marchetti: 1 major girls team that will play in Hamilton. The minor teams may also play some games in Hamilton.

Football/Cheerleading:

Concessions:

Sponsorship:

Old business: Scholarship: Colleen Herbert checked with the other townships and the feedback was that they had stopped offering the scholarship. The committee all agreed that they would like to continue the plan to offer the scholarships.

New business: Egg Hunt: Caitlin Herbert offered to organize and run again this year on Saturday March 19th.

Josh Watson, from Chesterfield, is looking to have a NBIAA meeting prior to the assessments.

Adjournment: Motion to adjourn at 9:30 pm by Tammy Caloiaro and second by Pete Mosteller. All present members approved and motion passed.

Respectfully prepared and submitted:

Christine Alpin, secretary
